Tribute from Deanna (Pearson) Hendry

Relation: cousin

Abbie, Susan, Jodie, Judy, and Tammi ~ it's never easy to lose someone we love; but the death of a parent is particularly hard as we lose not only a loved one, but also a source of comfort, knowledge, and advice. You have suffered the loss of both your parents this summer, and we can only imagine how difficult this time is for all of you. However, remember that love can never be forgotten, and treasured memories can never be lost. In your memories, in your heart, your father (& mother) will always be with you. May the passing days and the knowledge that your parents are once again together bring you comfort and peace. Deanna
