Tribute from Kelvin Bergeson

Relation: ex. son in law

Awesome mother in law. She was non-judgmental I felt, a rare and honorable trait. Many happy memories camping up St. Mary's with her, Earl, Christine, Brenda, Joe, and David. Happy journey, Mom.

Tribute from Brenda Morris

Relation: old neighbor

Many fond memories of Eileen she was good to me as a child, Sometimes we would chat in the garden, as she picked veggies or, I would pick wildflowers from the field past the school to share with her, and she would slip me a dime, to get ice cream from the ice cream truck(don't tell Earl lol). Later in the years, I worked with her at the Marysville Cafe, Eileen was the cook I was the server, and she always cooked lovely meals and delicious pies, I enjoyable my shifts with Eileen . Later in life, I dropped in on my longtime neighbor for a hug and to bring her a bouquet of flowers, we had a few good laughs and a lovely walk down memory lane. My sincere condolences, to the Blanchard Family. from Brenda Morris. (Gallinger)
