Relation: Friend and co-worker

Our condolences to your family, know that we are thinking of you.

---

Tribute from Bill and Linda Smith

Relation: Friends through trucking

We send our deepest condolences to Blaine's family. He was a gentleman in all manner of the word. Blaine imparted his years of wisdom to Bill and I when we were getting into the trucking business; he was always there to answer any questions we had and to offer his sage advice. The trucking community lost one of the great ones and he will be truly missed.

Tribute from Cathy Rephin

So very sorry for your loss.

---

Tribute from Sharon and Dennis

Relation: Aunt and Uncle

Growing up, Blaine was always up-beat, the tag-a-long in the group who refused to be ignored who grew up to be a head taller than most of the rest of us! From a very young age, he was a masterful story-teller. Blaine loved people and loved talking to them on any topic. Widely read and extremely bright, it was he who could remember the most obscure detail about anything he and the family had experienced. A true treasure. Thinking of you and the family so much Rita... our heart is very heavy. Much love, Sharon and Dennis

---

Tribute from Irene Vanderstar

Relation: Leanne's sister in law

We are so very sorry for your devastating loss of your husband, father, and brother and are sending you our love and prayers. We will always remember his humour, his laughter and his beautiful smile. Rest in peace dear friend. From the Vanderstar and the Hanssens families.
