

REMEMBERING
George Carlisle

May 29, 1932 - December 4, 2012

George Bernard Carlisle passed away at the Pines in Kimberley, BC on Tuesday, December 4, 2012 at the age of 80 years. George was born on May 29, 1932 in Invermere, BC and was the third of four sons born to George and Elsie Carlisle, who came to Canada in 1929 from Rotherham, Yorkshire.

George enjoyed woodworking and produced many useful items over the years. Even after losing his sight, he retained the ability to create functional pieces. George and his brother, Fred ranched in the Wycliffe area for many years. He also enjoyed CB radio and was known locally as "Bugaboo."

George leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 49 years, Mary; his daughter, Sarah Carlisle (Keith Honeyman) and one grandson, Matthew Honeyman. He also leaves two brothers, Jim and Alan and three nephews and one niece. George was predeceased by his parents and one brother, Fred.

At George's request, there will be no funeral service. If friends desire, memorial donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society.
