Raylene & family - our thoughts are with you. When I remember Jim, I think of his intelligence that I so respected (but would never admit to him), his stories of growing up in Cranbrook, working with him at Woodland Equip. & Terratech; and the "special Chinese dishes" he made for me when he cooked at the Eagles' Chinese dinners. RIP, Jim.

Tribute from Averie Lum

Relation: Possibly am a common ancestor

Hello my name is Averie Lum. I am doing a research paper on my family history and i came across the name Ban Quan. I was not entirely sure if he is one of my past ancestors but the name had come up during my research and there was not a lot to say about him being related to the Lum family. Thank you for taking the time to read this email whoever does. I would also like to send my condolences to your family and just say that i am very sorry for your loss.
