I have such good memories of roping with John! He turned many steers for me and the one I remember most was at Grainger at Fort Steele.. he latched on tea big steer and he and Mary left town with Rhubarb and I in hot pursuit. I caught two feet, and had my hand in the dally! He hollered "Hang on a minute for the flag!" So I did and we won money.. shared many a laugh over that one. He was lots of fun.
