Tribute from John & Eileen Wasilciw

Relation: Friend

John wishes to extend his condolences to you at this sad time. His memory is bad but he sat and told me stories about when Lou, George and John were young and the good times he shared with both. Two very enjoyable people to be out and about with. They made the "good times roll"!

Tribute from Mary Ellen Bond

Relation: former neighbor

Lou and George were great neighbors. We were neighbors when our son, Lewis, and our daughter, Georgia, were born. Lew and George. We always laughed about that, especially given Lew was our boy and George, our girl. Lou was a friendly, spirited, and yes, stylish, neighbor, who I liked, admired and respected. Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss. Mary Ellen, Daryl, Lewis and Georgia.

Tribute from Norma Buttignol

Relation: friend and neighbour

Dear Darcy, Lisa and family,

So sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was a very talented and lovely lady. Your mom and dad were great neighbours to my parents, the Persello's, and they were always there to give a hand.

My deepest sympathy to all your family.

Norma Buttignol

Tribute from Mary Ann Stewart

Relation: Good Friend for many years

Dear Darcy, Lisa and family -- I was so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was such a wonderful lady, always so helpful and caring. To me, she was a very special friend even though we lost contact over the years. I still remember the great times that we had together, Lou, George, Ted and I. Lou is now with her George, and with Signe and Ed, and they will be happily dancing the hambo. She will never be forgotten.
Please accept my sincerest condolences.
Mary Ann Stewart.
