Relation: She was my Aunt

Auntie Peggie, although I only recently had the privilege of meeting you in person I've known about you my whole life. As a child I imagined you living in an exotic place with my cousins and thought it was so cool.
I'm heartbroken that the 3 Jeffrey girls are no longer lighting up our world. It does make me happy to know that you girls are all together again even though I feel a huge void I also feel the legacy of your love through your amazing children my cousins.
I love you all very much!

Relation: She was my Aunt

Though due to complicated family circumstances, I never knew Auntie Peggie as well as I would have liked too. I knew of her as a beautiful photo of her on my grandpa's piano and through all my moms fond memories of their childhood, but it's not quite the same.
I'm grateful that I at least got to meet her a couple of years back and since have been able to be in touch though the miles separated us. The love for her that all who knew her have is a testament to the sweet person she was and the sweet soul that lives on in her children. She will be dearly missed.

Tribute from Lorraine Gray

Relation: My Auntie

I feel like getting to meet you and your children was one of the greatest gifts of love I've ever received. It was only a couple of years ago that we met, but I felt love instantly … like it had been there all my life. And, during that first visit, I got to know you and your family. I know you were a wonderful mother and grandmother … that is proven by the love and graciousness that I feel from your children, Clair, Maggie and Chris and grandchildren Clair and Vanessa. You live on in them. With sadness, I say farewell until we meet again Auntie Peggie.
