Tribute from Paul & Deborah Johnson

Relation: friends of the family

So sorry to hear of your loss of a very sweet, great lady. To live almost to 100 years is a remarkable thing indeed. We yearn for the time when she wakes up strong and healthy and feisty, ready to do whatever work is going on. Never forget our strong hope as you cope with Mary's loss in the days ahead. Our warm sympathy and love to you and your family, Paul and Deborah

Tribute from Janine Davies

Relation: My Grandmother

My Gran was full of life, full of zeal for the truth. She is an example to us all as she always thought of the good in people, did not gossip and was quite positive. Even in her later years, when I asked how she was feeling, she always said 'as good as can be expected for my age, Janine'. I always told her good things come in small packages and she just laughed. She had such a contagious laugh, it made others laugh around her. I loved her cooking, she was such a wonderful cook, and I learned so many things from her. My gran would tell me stories of her growing up and she told them in such a way that she never put anyone down. Gran was very special and she has gone through so much but yet still managed to maintain her zeal and integrity for our God, Jehovah. I can't wait to see my dear sweet Gran come back to us in much better conditions, young and vibrant once again. I will always hold fond memories for my Gran in my heart. I thank Jehovah for the privilege of having such a beautiful person be my Grandmother and also having her with us for so long.

Tribute from Chris & Tracine Belanger

Relation: Friend

Dear Vic, Janet, and the rest of the family,

We wish to express our condolences. Mary was such a sweet and charming sister who loved Jehovah and demonstrated it by being faithful for so many years. She was proof that "good things come in small packages" and she lit up a room just from her sweet personality and kind disposition.

we love you very much,

Chris & Tracine Belanger
