Tribute from Bob Johnstone

Relation: Colleague of Pat and Janice. Parent of two daughters who had Pat as their teacher.

Sincere condolences to Pat's family on the passing of such a kind and gentle lady.

45 years ago our family moved to Kimberley and settled in Black Bear subdivision. It was an exciting time for us but not without the trepidation of 5 kids starting in new schools, one at McKim and the others at Chapman Camp grades 5, 4, 2 and K.

Our fourth child and eldest daughter, Jana, was in grade 2. Mrs Marchi was her teacher. Soon any apprehensions had dissipated, as each day after school Jana updated us with the latest adventures of the "Desk Fairy", who for our family became a symbol of the safe environment in our kids' new school.

Jana loved Mrs Marchi who assured us the feeling was mutual. Although we suspected that she told all the parents the same thing and that she was simply telling the truth!

Jana was delighted when she learned that Mrs Marchi would be her teacher for grade three. The next year we were delighted to learn that Mrs Marchi would be the teacher of our youngest daughter, Jennifer in grade 2.

Jennifer has now been teaching for many years. When I called to inform her of Mrs Marchi's passing, she confessed that the Desk Fairy had been employed in her classroom for several years!

After my daughters had finished at Chapman Camp, I had the pleasure of working with Pat's daughter, Janice, at the school board office in Kimberley. The Desk Fairy was not part of Janice's repertoire but she did display many of the same positive qualities as her mom.

Pat's love of children, sincere concern for their wellbeing, and support for their learning, made a difference in the lives of the many students she encountered.

My sincere condolences to the March family. Pat had many admirable qualities and I always appreciated her kind and gentle manner. She will indeed be missed by you all but you were so fortunate to have had her in your lives. Her qualities will live on through her family members and you will always treasure the time she shared with all of you. My thoughts are with you as you journey through this difficult time.
