Tribute from Erna Bollinger

Relation: niece/ god daughter

Wishing you nothing but good memories Don, Neil and families including Loyal's family
We lost a family treasure this week. Aunt Rita was the example of enjoying life. I can still hear her stories and hear her laugh. She had that self-deprecating sense of humour.
Always ready to lend a helping hand, She would do the the most tedious jobs. One time I was making a greek salad for a party and she cut the pits out of all the black olives so no one would have to worry about biting into something hard.
She related to people. She could talk to Rod about things he was interested in. She could talk to the girls when they were very little or when they had become young adults and was even willing to be the test person in one of their jello shooter adventures.
She new how to live and enjoy life. I will remember her as the auntie who never grew old and I will forever be grateful for the example she set for us.
Rest in Peace Auntie Rita
