Barb and family.

I wish you all strength as you move forward in your live's without Russ. At the end of the day, we can not control all of the events in the world around us; however, we can control the way in which we react to them. I hope that each of you can take this huge stumbling block and turn it into stepping stone(s).

All the best to each of you as your live's start down a new path. My thoughts are with you.

With empathy.

Wayne Pelter
