I was saddened to hear about Selma. Thinking of all of you at this time. Believe I knew her from Jaffray at the Senior's home

Tribute from DeAnn Wheaton

Relation: Friend

Sorry for the loss of a beautiful woman inside and out. Please take comfort that her smile and smart wit was a welcoming part that I loved when she walked into the store. Hugs and kisses to the family

Tribute from Kay Amundson

Relation: Friend

My deepest thought to the whole family. Selma was always such a joy to visit with and we partied very well! RIP my gal

Tribute from Bob Cherney

Relation: Friend of the family

Condolences to Julie, Fritz, Darren, Laurel and Dale and families on the passing of your dear Mom. She was a special lady and she will be missed. Lots of memories of her while growing up with you all. What I remember most about was her wonderful sense of humour and that she loved to laugh. RIP Selma.

so sorry to hear of your Mom passing.
Our thoughts are with all of your family.
She will be missed.

Tribute from Shan and Sheila Fitzpatrick

Relation: Friend

To the Sandberg family. We were sorry to hear of Selma's passing. It was always a treat to meet her anywhere. She had such a happy, positive way of interacting, even if it was the hospital we met her at!
Cherish your good memories of your mom.

Tribute from June and Bernard Robins

Relation: Friend

Selma was friends with Bernard's mom Olive. Such a nice person with a really nice family. I'm sure that she is missed.

Tribute from Melvin Andersen

Sorry to read about Selma. I played on radio with her brother Ernie Sommerfeldt and his wife Mary Ann, also with her brother who played steel guitar, think the show on Vernon radio station was Studio Party & all volunteer musicians. I knew the Sommerfelt family in Lumby as I lived there as a kid. Also knew Glen Sandberg, my brother Jack Anderson & I rode over to Cranbrook with him & on the way back to Lumby Glen brought some honey which spilled all over in the back seat! We were very good friends with lots of memories. Mel Andersen
