REMEMBERING

Tracey Lynn Anderson

July 18, 1973 - November 15, 2024

A Loving Heart, A Creative Soul

Tracey Lynn Anderson, a devoted member of her community, passed away on Friday, November 15, 2024, at the age of 51. Her love for life, family and art will be deeply missed.

Tracey loved to travel and explore new places within Canada whenever the opportunity arose. Her adventures were always filled with joy, laughter and a sense of wonder.

A creative and artistic person, Tracey found solace in drawing, painting, and sketching. She was particularly fond of drawing roses, which reflected her love for beauty and attention to detail. Her artwork was a testament to her creative spirit and her ability to find inspiration in everyday life.

With a keen eye for beauty and a passion for improvement, Tracey loved to decorate her home and make it a warm and welcoming space for her loved ones. She took great joy in finding new ways to enhance her home and her life, and she was always eager to share her ideas and inspiration with others.

Tracey's love for her family was evident in everything she did. She loved to cook for them, trying out new recipes and experimenting with new flavors. Her home was always filled with the delicious aromas of her cooking, and her family cherished the memories they made around her dinner table. She loved to invite her family over for gatherings, holidays, and special occasions, always making sure everyone felt loved and included.

As a caring, thoughtful, and loving member of her community, Tracey was devoted to making everyone live their best life. She had a gift for finding the beauty in everyone and everything, and her presence made the world a brighter, more loving place.

Though she may be gone, Tracey's memory will live on through her parents, Daphne and Gordon Anderson; her brother, Glen Anderson; her children, Dillion, Dakota, and Brianna Anderson, and her son-in-law, Arjun; her grandchildren, Naoka, Zaylen, and soon-to-be granddaughter; as well as her extended family and friends. Her love, laughter and legacy will continue to inspire them and all who knew her.

Rest in peace, dear Tracey. Your love, light, and beauty will never be forgotten.

A Funeral Service will be held at 11:00 am on Monday, November 25, 2024 at Mark Memorial Community Funeral Home in Cranbrook. Interment will follow in Westlawn Cemetery.
